If an extremely assiduous and amazingly ill-informed press agent is to be delieved (which he is not). Father time has been playing pranks with Mischa Elman during the last five years. He has not only stood still "as a lawyer in vacation," but actually turned backward a decade or more. Though the Russian artist played for us in New York fourteen years ago and was a rather mature youth at that time, we were recently told how amazed some European people were to discover that so famous an artist was utill such a lad in years.
